LexisNexis® Public Records

available on lexis.com®

New release improves accuracy and functionality

LexisNexis Public Records provides attorneys and legal professionals access to a complete legal research solution for gathering intelligence to:

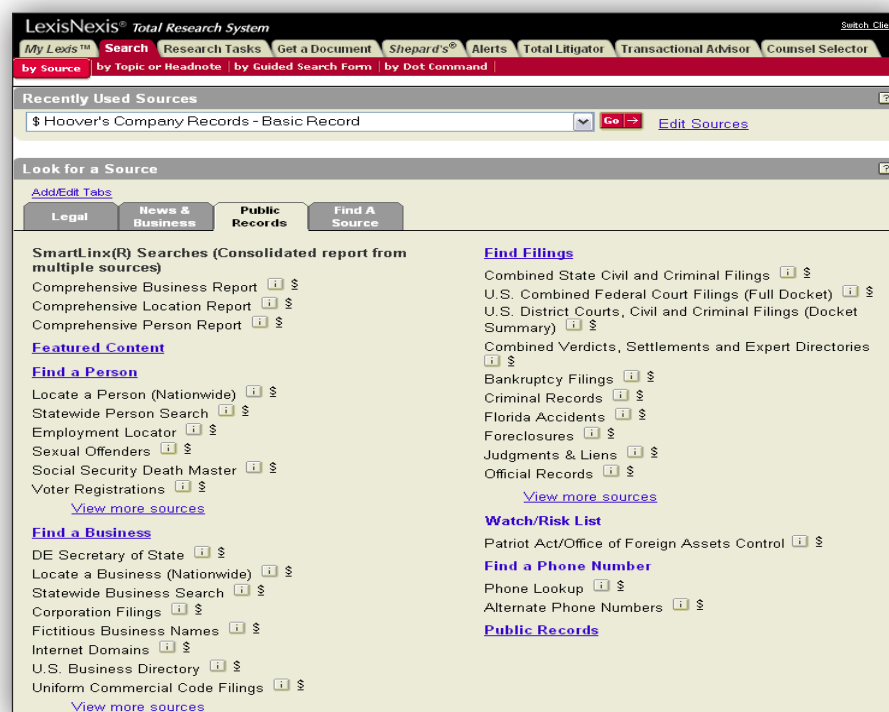

- Track down elusive parties
- Uncover hidden assets
- Verify certifications
- Investigate criminal past
- Review conflict of interest in business and personal relationships
- Fact find legal status in Secretary of State and UCC filings

An investigative tool, LexisNexis Public Records goes beyond document text searching to link related data sources with state-of-the-art technology. The result is fast access to reliable, 360-degree information about people and businesses including current and historical addresses, relatives, associates, business affiliations, assets and much more.

Turn to LexisNexis Public Records for one of the most accurate and complete sets of public records content available—covering more than 450 million unique individuals, 150 million unique businesses and 2,013 tax assessor counties. Beyond public records sources, available content includes regulated data, private data and derived information that is not readily available from other providers.

Confidence in Your Investigation

- Gain a more complete picture during fact finding with your answer set plus suggested related entries.
- Increase the accuracy of investigation with proprietary search technology that reduces duplicative entries.
- Reduce your search time with easy-to-complete online forms that facilitate one search that scans multiple databases.

LexisNexis Public Records Features:

- SmartLinx® Reports—An investigative reporting tool that is unmatched in the market, SmartLinx combs through billions of public records with a single search to quickly locate and associate information for a more complete results set.
- Rolled-up Answer Sets—Proprietary data-linking technology recognizes similar names, nicknames and spelling variations and correlates them to the right entity automatically. Documents on the “same” person or business are grouped and duplicative documents are extracted to reduce errors and increase accuracy.
- Create Search Criteria—With fill-in-the-blank simplicity, our form-based search-functionality logic creates fast results sets based on the input information. Intuitive search technology finds the most complete answer set in your investigation helping ensure that no stone is left uncovered.
- Recommended Sources—Guided navigational features including “We also found” and suggested “Further Searches” help you to easily uncover additional connections and sources.
- Expanded Coverage and Sources—More than 7.5 billion instances of identifying information by people, business assets or location, for conducting due diligence, locating witnesses and verifying client information.
- Investigate by State or Nationwide—Target records by jurisdiction—city, region, state—or conduct a broader nationwide investigation.
- Manage Research Costs Effectively—Any sources outside your subscription are clearly identified with a “$”—so you easily see and choose whether to access information outside your subscription.
- Single Point of Contact—We simplify your customer service and support, plus offer use-tracking and invoicing solutions to improve your back-office function.
- Fully integrated—On lexis.com® and in LexisNexis® Total Litigator and Lexis® Transactional Advisor solutions, you can easily transition from researching case law or latest news information to a public records search.
